

JESSICA SCHEITLER

SPONSORED BY FINANCIAL GROOVE

Jessica Scheitler owns and operates Financial Groove in New York and Las Vegas, which strives to bridge the gap between creativity and business. As a graduate with honors from Marymount Manhattan College in New York City, Jessica has parlayed her Bachelor of Fine Arts in Choreography and minors in Arts Administration and Mathematics into a specialized career in arts accounting and business management. Jessica grew up dancing in Iowa with roots in competitive dance and then went on to dance in concert dance, choreograph musical theater and independent work, and is one of the founding members of Nevada Repertory Dance Theater. Jessica has worked in arts administration for the Lion King on Broadway and Las Vegas Contemporary Dance Theater. She currently works with dance studios, independent artists and performers, dance companies and production companies throughout the United States.
