

RON DEVITO

SPONSORED BY ACCESS BROADWAY

Ron DeVito (President) of Access Broadway is a graduate with honors from New York's H.S. of Performing Arts "FAME" school. Ron's performing credits include: the original Broadway Company of "42nd Street" for David Merrick and Gower Champion. The Broadway & National Tours of "Cats" as the Rum Tum Tugger. The Broadway & National Tours of "Starlight Express" as Greaseball and the 1st national tour of "Crazy For You" for Susan Stroman. Ron was also a Semi-Finalist on the original "Star Search" w/ Ed McMahon. His choreography credits include the first Disney Cruise Line original productions. The Television Hall of Fame "A.T.A.S" Awards. The NBA All-Star Weekend event for NBC. The Macy's Thanksgiving Day production of "Beauty and the Beast," "101 Dalmatians" and "A Bugs Life". Ron has also choreographed Disney's 20th Anniversary Parade & Pocahontas musical at Disney/MGM Studios. Ron began his behind the scenes career in the early 80's as the resident choreographer for the original "Studio 54". In addition to teaching master classes for his own company "Access Broadway," Ron has also taught internationally for Dance Educators Of America, Dance Caravan and Dance Masters of America.

--CLASS DESCRIPTION COMING SOON--